

Montana University System New Academic Program Proposal Summary

Campus: University of Montana—Missoula	Item Number: 122-1009-R0104
Program Title: Nonprofit Administration	Date: January 15-16, 2004

1. How does this program advance the campus' academic mission and fit priorities?

The University of Montana expects students to become ethical persons of character and values, competent and humane professionals, and informed and engaged citizens of local and global communities. Students who minor in nonprofit administration will receive the specialized training that will enable them to participate in the nonprofit sector and address social and environmental issues.

2. How does this program fit the Board of Regents' goals and objectives?

The program fits the Board of Regents' goals D and E. It will offer programs and services consistent with the changing market and employment needs of the state and nation, improve and expand the communication and outreach of the Montana University system, and expand community involvement, service and outreach initiatives.

3. How does this program support or advance Montana's needs and interests?

Graduates of the program will be poised to enter professional positions in the nonprofit sector. Many nonprofit organizations address the educational, social, and environmental needs of communities throughout Montana.

4. How will this program contribute to economic development in Montana? (Note projected annual economic impact both regionally and statewide.)

As professionals in the nonprofit sector, graduates who minor in Nonprofit administration will be able to influence public policy and contribute funds and expertise toward solving education, social, and environmental problems in the state.

5. What is the Program's planned capacity?

Break-even point?

Enrollments/year?

Graduates/year?

MT jobs/year?

6. Resource Allocation

Total program budget? $

Faculty FTE?

Staff FTE?

Does this program require new resources? Amount?

No new resources are required.

How will the campus fund the program?

The coursework is already being offered. No new monies are required.

If internal reallocation is necessary, name the sources.