

Questions and Answers: Online Course for Secondary Students

1. Qu: What would you consider the ideal beginning date for the delivery of this course?

A: The ideal date would be Spring Semester 2010 for High schools.

2. Qu: Who will be responsible for recruiting the students and how will they be recruited?

A: The awardee would be responsible for making this opportunity known to the high schools via travel to set up the training environment and continued contact. The high school counselors and admin would then recruit students to take the course. In order to offer this opportunity in a fair and timely manner, the Office of Public Instruction will also send out an official e-mail to all schools, Rural School Alliance, the Small School Alliance and school counselors.

3. Qu: Do you anticipate any problems recruiting students since they have already registered for next year?

A: No. As this should be offered as an asynchronous course, the student can take the course during their study hall, or on their own time.

4. Qu: Which high schools have expressed an interest in the course?

A: Many small schools including Gardiner HS, Shields Valley HS, Terry HS, Ennis HS.
