

Course Materials Program

A program where all required course materials are provided to students on or before the first day of class.

A convenient program which removes barriers for students while making course materials affordable. Students pay for the course materials via a fee and students have the option to opt out of the program.

The goal of the program is to ensure all students have the necessary resources to succeed in higher education from day one.

Potential Pilot Program