

MANDATED STUDENT TRAINING THE FIRST STEP IN A COMPREHENSIVE APPROACH TO STUDENT WELL-BEING

CRYSTINE MILLER, DIRECTOR OF STUDENT AFFAIRS & STUDENT ENGAGEMENT JAYCI HACKER, DIRECTOR OF STUDENT WELL-BEING

FEDERAL TRAINING MANDATES FOR STUDENTS

Title IX

Prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex, including sexual harassment

IX to include various forms of intimate & sexual partner violence

Violence Against Women Act (VAWA)

> Drug Free Schools & Communities Act

Informs campus about policies, sanctions, and prevention programming related to ATOD misuse

OPPORTUNITIES

Student Development

Unique Cultural Influences

Holistic Approach

Address Student Diversity

Relevant Data

Training will be customizable for each campus

PROPOSED TIMELINE

Assemble Advisory Council

•December 2023

Ensure Compliance Requirements are met

• January 2024

Design Training to be Delivered through Canvas

•October 2024

Pilot Training with Small Cohort

•December 2024

Full Implementation by Fall 2025

THE BIGGER PICTURE

THIS IS THE FIRST OF MANY STEPS AS WE CO-CREATE A COMPREHENSIVE APPROACH TO ENHANCING WELL-BEING FOR STUDENTS IN THE MONTANA UNIVERSITY SYSTEM.

LOOKING AHEAD: Assessing System Needs

Upstream Programming
Early Identification
Screening Opportunities
Enhance Life Skills

Prevention
Intervention
Student Success

Postvention
Social Connectedness
Peer Support
Data Collection Strategy

Suicide Prevention Training
Faculty/Staff Training
Define Institutional Scope
Strategic Planning

Common Language
Establish a Continuum of Care
Provide Diverse Support Options
Leverage Community Resources

QUESTIONS??

