

Academic Organizational Structure

Request to Plan

CURRENT STRUCTURE

W. A. Franke College of Forestry and Conservation

Forest Management

Society and Conservation

Ecosystem and Conservation Sciences,
Wildlife Biology

College of Humanities and Sciences

Humanities

Social Sciences

Biological, Biomedical,
Physical, Mathematical, and Computational Sciences

*Phyllis J. Washington
College of Education*

Counseling

Educational Leadership

Teaching and Learning

PLANNED STRUCTURE

NEW W. A. Franke College

Ecosystem and Conservation
Sciences, Forest Management,
Society and Conservation

Geosciences

Environmental Studies

Wildlife Biology

NEW College of Science

Mathematical and Computational
Sciences

Physical Sciences

Biological and Biomedical
Sciences

NEW Phyllis J. Washington
College

Counseling, Educational Leadership

Humanities

Social Sciences

Teaching and Learning

Why?

- Align Structures with disciplinary strengths, values, and responsibilities as a public flagship
- Translate values to Career-readiness embedded in the curriculum
- Support expansion of Research and Creative Scholarship

Fiscal Planning

- No net increase in academic deans
- Staffing efficiencies
- Strategic Budget Planning
- Cost Structure Alignment
- Focused Development Support

Timeline

- Present-Spring 2025, develop Level II Proposals
- Spring-Fall 2025, Shared Governance Review
- April/October 2025, Submit to OCHE
- AY 2025-2026, Dean searches and implementation