4. Campus Reports
 - a. ASUM - broke ground on a new dorm, set to be done in 2026. Hiring committee interviewed lobbyist applications and the Senate approved the ASUM lobbyist.
 - b. ASUMW - appointing 4 new senators this week, preparing for homecoming next weekend.
 - c. ASHC - appointed a few senators for a total of 5.
 - d. ASMT - looking to appoint 2 senators, as well as a graduate student. Homecoming was last week and the Senate is working away.
 - e. ASMSU - absent
 - f. ASMSUB - Having a good semester so far

- g. ASMSU N - appointed 3 senators and reviewing 2 applications, which would complete the Senate, proposed lobbyists to gather interest in applying.
 - h. ASGFC - Hosted a fundraiser for a student on campus that went really well, working to fill roles on committees, planning their harvest fest event.
5. Hiring Committee for Lobbyist - Comments from President Locks: In order to appoint a MAS lobbyist, we must form a hiring committee to review and interview applicants. Don't let this process intimidate you, it will not be time consuming.

Appointed to committee - ASMSUN President, MAS President, ASGFC President, ASMT President.

6. Retreat - hosted in Bozeman at the November BOR. Will most likely be the Friday afternoon of the BOR (Nov 22nd, 2024). There will be leadership experience and bonding, forming legislative priorities. There are 20 tickets to the Brawl of the Wild, please notify ASMSU by October 20nd
7. MUS Suicide Prevention Committee - Christine Miller has invited us to participate in this committee. Montana student representation is important when discussing mental health across campuses. Isabella from ASHC has volunteered as well as Lexi from ASUMW.
8. New Business - Next meeting will be November 22
9. Adjourned at 2:18 pm
